A Reform Congregation

Volume 14 Issue 6

We Are Looking For A Rabbi

Temple Shalom
A small Reform congregation on the coast of South Carolina.
We are mostly seniors.
We hold lots of activities.
We have an active Sisterhood and Brotherhood.
We celebrate all the Jewish holidays.
We hold Shabbat services every Friday Evening and Saturday services the first Shabbat of the Month.

We own our own building.
We have an Ark, a Bimah, a Tree of Life and a Memorial Board.
What we don't have is a
Resident Rabbi.
Are you retired?
Are you interested?
Are you looking for a nice place to retire near the beach?
Would you like to lead a small, loving and established congregation without the stress of the big city congregations?
Talk to us at Temple Shalom
Email us at larevitch@sc.rr.com
(We might be heaven sent just for YOU)

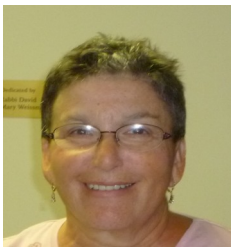
FROM THE PRESIDENTS



Presidents Message for December Bulletin

On the front page of this bulletin, there is an announcement to all who read the bulletin (which includes congregation members, and many others) that we are continuing our search for a part time or full time Rabbi or religious leader. We will also post an ad on Rabbicareers.com, the site we used during the summer for our guest Rabbi for the High Holidays. Although we have limited resources to support a Rabbi, we hope that perhaps a retired Rabbi, cantor, or rabbinic leader will want to fulfill our religious needs as the reform synagogue of the Grand Strand. Please feel free to forward this information to anyone you may know who might be interested or might know someone. If you have any questions, feel free to contact either Laurie or Cookie for further information.

December brings many activities. For Hanukkah, Sisterhood will present Hanukkah Happening on Sunday, December 15 at 1:30 PM. This year we will celebrate in advance of the holiday, but Hanukkah Happening is always a gala event with great food, menorah lighting, songs, games, and gifts. Our Latke Ladies will be making homemade latkes a few days before the celebration. Please make your reservation (with your check) in advance. The flyer and reservation form is in this newsletter and in the temple at the calendar bulletin board. Bring your friends and family for a great afternoon.

During the weekend of December 20-22, we will host Rabbi Aaron Rozovsky and his fiancé from the Institute for Southern Jewish Life in Jackson, MS. Brotherhood will host a Shabbat dinner on Friday night at 6 PM followed by the Rabbi leading Shabbat services. Jay and Elaine Hough are sponsoring the Oneg.

On Saturday morning, Rabbi Rosovsky will lead Shabbat services and a Torah service and discussion. We will have a Kiddush luncheon which the temple will provide. If you would like to bring something for the luncheon, please bring a Kugel, fruit, or a dessert. We are getting the rest of it from Publix. Havdalah service will be at 6:45 PM on Saturday night followed by the documentary "Broadway Musicals: A Jewish Legacy". We will have wine and cheese. You may bring your own bottle of wine. There will be plenty of time afterwards to schmooze and enjoy the company. On Sunday morning, the Rabbi will meet with board members informally. ISJL's mission is to provide a variety of services to temples like ours that do not have a Rabbi. Rabbi Rozovsky will head to Aiken for their Hanukkah celebration when he leaves us. Many thanks to Mickie Feiden and Bob Dahlin for offering their home to the Rabbi and his fiancé.
Sunday night, December 22, at 5:15 PM, Temple Shalom has the honor of lighting the first light of the menorah at Market Common. Come to pray with us, sing, maybe dance a hora, and just have some fun.
Temple Shalom is as busy as ever. Your participation and suggestions are welcome at any time.
Our next Board Meeting is SUNDAY, DECEMBER 8, 2019 AT 11 AM.

ONEG NEWS

Dave and I wish our entire Temple Shalom family a Happy Chanukah. I want to say thanks to all who provided onegs in 2019. Every Friday was covered and I deeply appreciate everyone's cooperation.

And now on to 2020!! Please let me know which dates you would like to provide an Oneg. It's never too early to plan ahead. Any questions about what is needed and what the procedure is, let me know!

Thanks.

Temple Shalom's October Mah Jongg Tournament

We just completed our fall mah jongg marathon. Our committee of Ina Falk, Irene Klein, Linda Post, LilyAnn Revitch and Lynn Sostrin always do a magnificent job. We had over 60 women participate. Everyone had a great time. It is always a day of fun, food and friendship. Our new players love the hospitality that they find at the marathon. As usual we had a delicious Chinese banquet for lunch. After the games are over, we award the prizes. People seem to love the assortment of prizes. Our 50-50 is always a big success. Two women went home with over $100 each. Be sure to attend the next marathon on February 25 and tell your friends...and if you would like to be on the mah jongg committee please let Irene know.

Brotherhood Update

Brotherhood will be meeting on Tuesday, December 3rd at 11:00 AM. Plans for our Shabbat dinner for December 20th will be discussed. (Dinner starts 6PM).Cirular for this event appears elsewhere in the bulletin and will be sent under separate email to congregants as well.
Also, to be discussed will be plans for future Brotherhood events. Please make every effort to attend.

Sisterhood

Sisterhood sponsored events are reflected in articles within the bulletin and on the December calendar.

Tzedakah - An Everlasting Tribute to Temple Shalom!

If you have been in the Temple recently, you may have noticed the two new steel doors which were installed this past month. These doors, in addition to other measures, will provide much needed added security to our members and guests. The security measures we are currently taking come at a considerable expense.

Therefore, the Board of Directors is providing our congregation with a special opportunity to make an important contribution to our building - to dedicate the new doors as an everlasting tribute to Temple Shalom. A single donor contribution of $2,500.00 (each door) or a minimum contribution of $250.00 will be recognized by a prominent engraved plaque(s) of the donor(s) which will be hung near the dedicated doors.

Your contribution is a great way to show your appreciation for Temple Shalom. All checks should be made payable to Temple Shalom and mailed to Temple Shalom, P.O. Box 51034, Myrtle Beach, SC 29579, Attn. Door Dedication.

All donations of any amount will be recognized in the Temple Shalom Newsletter.
We appreciate your continued support of Temple Shalom!
