FROM THE RABBI

Most of us are familiar with the Hebrew word for truth - emet - or in Ashkenazic Hebrew - emes. But there are many aspects to truth. There are many ways to approach truth.

One way is simply to deny the truth - to relate to others something which you know isn't true. Someone who does this is a liar.

Another way is to be silent when the truth should be spoken. Sometimes we're present when another person says something which we know is blatantly untrue, but we remain silent. We don't want to make waves or create a confrontation. This is the way of the coward.

At the other end of the spectrum is the cruel use of the truth, which involves harshly and unfeelingly proclaiming the truth when we should be silent. We shouldn't always feel free to say whatever is on our minds. Sometimes we have to forego saying what's on our minds in order to avoid hurting someone else's feelings. A child speaks whatever is on its mind. But sometimes a mature, adult person has to hold back and not say what's on his mind in order to be sensitive to the feelings of others.

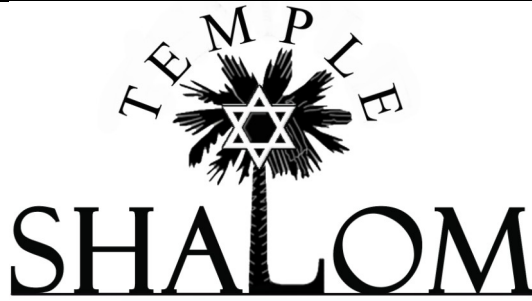

Another approach to the truth, which is quite common, is to twist and distort the truth. We see this in a lot of advertising copy, which doesn't tell the whole truth, which just tells part truths and which oversimplifies in order to sell a product. We also see this in political campaigns when political ads only tell half truths or oversimplifications of the truth in attacking a candidate's opponents. We also see it in both criminal and civil trials in which attorneys for each side just try to present that part of the truth which promotes the interests of the side they are on.

And I think that religious fundamentalists will often twist and distort little truths in order to promote what they consider to be a big truth. Both the Jewish Bible and the Christian New Testament contain some contradictions and material which is very difficult to justify as being accurate or ethically and morally acceptable based on today's standards. Yet, a fundamentalist who believes that everything in the Bible is the word of God will often distort the plain meaning of biblical passages as a way of making it seem that those passages are true and valid. In order to justify the big truth - his belief that the entire Bible is the word of God - the fundamentalist will distort and twist parts of the Bible which obviously are not valid in order to make them appear to be true.

So what should our attitude toward truth be? Well, no one can be absolutely truthful all the time. There are times when it's best to be absolutely truthful and there are times when we sometimes have to shave the truth a bit. But it's important for us to know the difference. And if we're not always truthful with other people we should at least be truthful with ourselves. Someone who really has a problem is the person who keeps lying to himself and doesn't even realize it.

SHABBAT SERVICES

We meet at 4023 Belle Terre Blvd, Myrtle Beach, SC. Parking is located in front and in back of the building.

Our Friday evening services begin at 7:30pm. There is an Oneg after services. On Saturday mornings services begin at 10:30 am. A small Kiddush is celebrated after services.

To all our Members & Friends,

Thank you to all of you that participated in our High Holiday Services. It was very encouraging to see how many women turned out for the Sisterhood meeting. Also glad to see our men are trying to re-establish a Brotherhood. The only way to get the most out of belonging to a Synagogue is to try to be part of all that is offered.

We have an active board and our board meetings are open to all members that wish to attend. Your input is always welcome. Our Onegs are always offered on Friday evenings by one of our members. If you have not yet volunteered to provide an oneg and would like to please call Flo Pflaster. Her number is in the Directory.

On the 6th of November our Mah Jongg Marathon will take place at the Temple. This is one of our fund- raisers. It is always well supported by the community. If you would like to participate in the future please let Irene Klein know.

One of the most important functions of any congregation is the training of our young people for their Bar/Bat Mitzvah. Shelley Foels celebrated her Bat Mitzvah on October 27th.. Mazel Tov to her parents Michelle and Greg Foels. Thank you for your involvement and guidance you, as Shelley's parents, have shown. We are so proud of Shelley. I know her future will be one full of accomplishments

ONEG NEWS

Thank you all for your support and condolences this past month. My dad lived a long and happy life and we were grateful for that blessing.

At a recent Board meeting it was noted that following a Friday night Oneg, the room is often left somewhat messy with cups, plates, etc. still on the tables. Crumbs are often not swept up and garbage is left in the cans.

We have decided that an email will go out from me each Friday to the one doing the Oneg to remind you that it is your responsibility to see that the room is left clean and the garbage is taken out of the cans and a new clean bag inserted. The garbage is to be taken home by someone for disposal.

Please note that I realize that not everyone is physically capable of performing all these chores independently so do ask for assistance from other members.

Most every date in 2019 is available so please let me know which date you'd like to provide the oneg.

Thanks,

Flo Pflaster

We have a brand new, hardly used Lift Chair Recliner to sell. If you are interested in one or know of someone who is please call Flo at the number listed above for more information.

Thanks to the generosity of Norbert the first meeting to revive Temple Shalom's brotherhood was convened Sunday, October 7th. Discussion centered around the reasons for reviving the group. (see pictures below)

The decision was made to meet again in November to better organize the brotherhood by (a) defining the purpose(s) and putting together officers to guide the organization.

To this end and invitation is extended to the men of Temple Shalom whether members or spouses of members to attend our November meeting. Assuming that there are no scheduling conflicts we will have our November meeting at:
