Volume 15, Issue 3

FROM THE PRESIDENTS

We know that the past six months have been incredibly difficult for many of our congregants as we have had to distance from each other and our families and friends. Many have had to deal with illness, death of loved ones and other changes to our "normal". We owe a huge thank you to the leadership of Temple Shalom for continuing the business of the Temple. Thank you to our lay leaders for leading weekly Shabbat services and to Michelle, our tech guru, who has helped keep us connected through Facebook and Zoom meetings. Thank you to all of our congregants for continuing to check in with other congregants. Hopefully we can all see each other in person soon.

This summer has seen tension and frustration in our "new normal". We are dealing with a deadly pandemic which will permanently change what we thought of as our "norm". While each of us will have to decide how this pandemic affects our day to day living, the leaders of Temple Shalom will continue to closely evaluate how we, as a congregation, will operate to provide meaningful and valued experiences to our members and community. We are hopeful that whatever changes we need to make, they will be positive for all of us. We are thrilled and grateful for the many congregants and new friends who have joined our virtual Shabbat services.

This summer, with Covid-19 case numbers on the rise, the leaders of Temple Shalom made the very difficult decision to close our building in mid-July. We vowed to continue Shabbat services each week and continued to interview prospective Rabbis. However, the pandemic caused us to put the option of a new Rabbi on hold until the pandemic is under control. Most of our members have re-joined the Temple, and for that support, we are very grateful.

The Board also made a challenging decision to hold virtual High Holy Day services this year. We are extremely fortunate and proud to have Rabbi David Weissman, our Rabbi Emeritus, leading us in prayer via Zoom this year. While our services will be virtual, and our doors remain closed, our Temple Shalom hearts are fully open. It will not be same as in years past, but, thanks to technology, we know we can create a meaningful and inspiring High Holy Days experience which integrates tradition with innovation and personal reflection with communal connection. Each service will be somewhat interactive, timely, and feature congregant participation with Rabbi Weissman. The length of the services will be shortened to keep us all focused and engaged in prayer. With the help of Rabbi Weissman, a concise "digital" prayer book will be sent to all congregants. All congregants will automatically be invited to join our Zoom services. Any other family, friends, community guests, etc. who wish to participate in any of our services need to email Temple Shalom at templeshalomtreasurer@gmail.com ASAP to receive an invitation to join us.

This pandemic will be a major reset button for us in so many ways. At this New Year 5781, we need to think very deeply about how we will reset our priorities. It is a time to ask for forgiveness if we have hurt one another. We need to consider how we will proceed with our lives and how we can engage in Tikkun Olam.

Although this year the medium of our worship will be different, its substance will remain the same. We look forward to your continued participation in and support of our Temple.

The business of Temple Shalom must continue. We depend on your generosity to financially support Temple Shalom. Your High Holy Day and Yizkor donations are so important to the continuation of our Temple. Thank you in advance for your generosity and support.

A schedule of services is listed in this newsletter. Please refer to it since the times and number of services has changed from past years. We look forward to beginning the year 5781 with all of you!

Shanah Tovah,
Laurie and Cookie

A Reform Congregation

In honor of Rabbi David Weissman's eleven years of dedicated service to Temple Shalom prior to his retirement in June 2019, the Board of Directors of Temple Shalom of Myrtle Beach is very proud to designate Rabbi David Weissman as the congregation's Rabbi Emeritus.

Although he now lives in Delray Beach, Florida, Rabbi David has agreed, as Rabbi Emeritus, to officiate at funerals other than graveside, via Zoom, for Temple Shalom members who pass away. There will be no charge for Rabbi David's services.

Rabbi David's name and telephone number are listed at the top of the masthead in the monthly temple bulletin. If you decide to use his services, call him if a loved one passes away. He can advise you regarding Jewish funeral procedures. Based on his eleven years at Temple Shalom, he has extensive knowledge about funeral homes in the area. Since large groups cannot be permitted to assemble during the coronavirus pandemic, Rabbi David will officiate at the funeral via Zoom and anyone can attend. Following the funeral services, a congregational representative of Temple Shalom will accompany the immediate family to the cemetery (if it is in the area), and will lead the recitation of prayers at the grave site.

There will be no fee for Rabbi David's services if he officiates at a congregant's funeral. Whether or not a surviving family decides to use Rabbi David's services is entirely at the family's discretion. However, if the family decides to engage someone other than Rabbi David to officiate at the funeral, it is the family's responsibility to pay any fee due to the officiant. If you have any questions, you can call Rabbi David at 843-855-3505.

This service is being offered free of charge only for members of Temple Shalom who pass away. If a relative or companion of a Temple Shalom member passes away, and the member wishes to use Rabbi David for the funeral service, a donation of $300 payable to Temple Shalom will be required.

We look forward to Rabbi David's continued involvement with Temple Shalom.

Mi Sheberach list

We are continually updating our Mi Shebeirach list .

Please provide Cookie or Laurie with names of only congregants (yourselves) and/or immediate family members (parents, children, grandchildren, siblings). If there are any others, you can call out their names from your homes at the appropriate time.

I was wondering how we are coping during these trying times. I thought we can use our bulletin to provide a forum to say hello to each other much like we did during Onegs on Friday nights or Temple events which are now on hold. Since Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur occur this month may I be among the first to wish you a healthy and hopefully happier New Year.

My son, David and I took two trips during the Pandemic. The first was to Gettysburg, PA on May 28th to attend his son Harrison's, H.S. graduation. We had a lovely two days with masks and social gathering with his mom and grandma, Heidi and Carolyn. The weather was perfect and we were very proud of Harrison. In the next few weeks, he is heading for the Rochester Institute of Technology.

Our next trip on Sunday, August 2nd, we went to Gainesville, Florida and I showed David where Ron and I had met, the movie house we went to, and my dormitory. We were on the way to the funeral of David's first cousin, my 62 year old niece, Jan. Her mom was Ron's sister. We met at Jan's brother's house in Georgetown, FL about an hour west of St. Augustine. There were 21 relatives there, from Auburn, AL, Jacksonville, FL, Apopka, FL, St. Petersburg, FL, and Spartanburg, SC (from Jan's Dad side of the family). We all wore masks and sat outside at 10 am on Tuesday, the 4th. The view was spectacular - Lake George, a large lake where you could not see the other side. The yard was filled with trees and lovely flowering plants. Jan's sister, Karen & her husband conducted the service which was beautiful. Then we were each asked to say something. I said, "I was welcomed into this family 60 years ago by Jan's mother. Jan was 2 years old at the time." We are so glad we went. Ron's family is the greatest. I imagined that Ron, his brother, 3 sisters and their spouses would walk thru the door. They are all gone now, and I remember when most of the people there were children.

Beth Crow

This is our granddaughter, Paityn. She is now 15 months old. We have not seen her since January, and miss her terribly. The only consolation is that we FaceTime with all of our kids several times a week, so we get to watch her, and sometimes, interact with her. Zoom and FaceTime have become the new normal for how we communicate with people.

As with most of us, contact with our family has been done virtually. In our case, we haven't visited our NY family in over a year. Our trip to Japan was in October, 2019. Probably the hardest thing to accept is that during this period of time when the grandchildren develop so rapidly we are only spectators from a distance. The period of bonding between generations is disrupted and that is something that cannot be recovered.

The Yokohama crew

It has been a long 5 1/2 months. I miss seeing all of you and spending time in the Temple. As most of you know, two of my grandchildren, Allison and Noah, graduated from college in May. Definitely a highlight for me! I am grateful for Mah Jongg on line. It helps to pass lots of time and gets me to use my brain cells. Hope everyone stays safe and happy until we get together again!
