A FAREWELL MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENTS

Before we sign off as Presidents of Temple Shalom, we are delighted to invite you to meet, in person, our new Rabbi, Rabbi Gordon Fuller, or “Rabbi Gordy”, as he likes to be referred. You will be able to meet Rabbi Gordy as we plan to re-open our synagogue for our annual Congregational Meeting on Thursday, June 10, 2021 at 3:00 PM. We will be voting for our new slate of officers and directors as well as making a dedication for a new plaque for the security doors to be hung in the Temple. Your attendance at this meeting is important for the future of Temple Shalom!

Please plan to join with our congregation family for this momentous occasion!

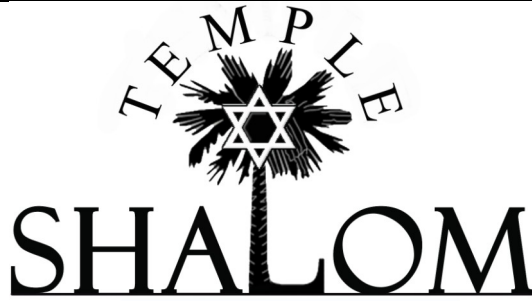

We recently realized that this would be our last newsletter article as presidents of Temple Shalom. It has always been easier for us to stand up and talk in front of a room full of people than write letters or articles. So this is our written farewell address. Being a temple president is a task that demands certain survival skills. It is not a position that we sought but one that we volunteered for, as is the case with many temple presidents. What increases the survival rate of all synagogue presidents is being surrounded by a supportive Executive Board and Board of Directors and we have been most fortunate in that regard. Without them we would never have been able to remain sane and keep from sinking when times were difficult – who would have ever expected a pandemic and the physical closing of Temple Shalom during our term as President?

As we look back on our term that is ending, and ahead to the one that is beginning, we see both challenges and opportunities for Temple Shalom, as we move forward together. Another one of the unplanned challenges, from 2 years ago, was finding ourselves undertaking a rabbinic search for a new part-time Rabbi, after Rabbi Weissman announced his retirement to Florida. But even though it was unexpected, we feel like if we accomplished nothing else while we were President, our involvement in leading the search that led to our finding Rabbi Gordy will have made our term a success. We are so glad that he is now part of our congregation, and confident that as you have a chance to get to know him, you will come to feel the same.

We shall soon be passing the gavel (do we have one?) to Hope Sachwald and Linda Disselkamp, the heirs to the throne. They have served on the Board of Directors for the past several years and Hope has shared many a D'var Torah on Friday night Shabbats. Thank you all for supporting us and allowing us to lead you the past two years! We will hopefully be seeing all of you at the Congregational meeting and beyond!

*Thanks again,
Cookie & Laurie*

Norbert Flatow

Norbert has led an interesting, exciting and fulfilling life. Born in Breslau, Germany at the time the Nazis came to power, he fled Germany with his family to Shanghai, China in 1939. Arriving into a totally alien environment and with limited funds, Norbert and his family spent eight years living in a ghetto in one room with forty other refugees. Norbert was fortunate to go to a school in Shanghai which taught in English. Before leaving China in 1947, Norbert had his Bar Mitzvah in Shanghai. The family emigrated from Shanghai to Montevideo, Uruguay traveling via the US. In Montevideo at age 13, Norbert started his auto mechanic apprenticeship. He worked numerous jobs in Uruguay and in 1958 immigrated to the United States. Six months after his arrival in the U.S., Norbert was drafted into the US

Army. He served honorably for three years.

While stationed in Germany, Norbert married a German girl with whom he fathered two children. It was notable that during the inductive process, the Army awarded Norbert a GED high school equivalent which later allowed him to go to college, part time, for fourteen years. He graduated from George Mason University with a business degree. Norbert had a fulfilling career of 33 years with Federal Aviation Administration, rising through the ranks into a management position. Norbert remarried in 1990 to his sweetheart Sue. Together, they retired in 2001 from the Federal Government and have since lived a happy life that included much travel.

Norbert is survived by his loving wife, Sue, his two children Susan and Mark, five step children and nine grandchildren.

Throughout his life Norbert was an active gymnast, tennis player, skier, golfer and bridge player. He enjoyed building and repairing items in his home and helping friends and neighbors. He was an active member of Temple Shalom and enjoyed bringing his famous deviled eggs to the various functions. Norbert will be laid to rest at Arlington National Cemetery and will be missed by his family and friends.

Brotherhood

Speaking for the brotherhood of Temple Shalom I extend our heartfelt gratitude for the contributions Norbert gave to the temple through his involvement in both the religious and social mechanisms of our organization. He will be sorely missed.

To both those members who were active prior to the Covid crisis and those who wish to have their voices heard please let me know how the Brotherhood should proceed going forward. Send your responses to djp3747@atmc.net by June 8th.
