From the Desk of the President:

This will be my last Sisterhood Newsletter. Knowing that a newsletter for the Sisterhood had been a desire for quite some time, I decided to take a light approach combining news, information, and entertainment. It has been a labor of love, one that I hope you have enjoyed.

The Sisterhood will gather for the last time on Wednesday, June 22nd for the Sisterhood Final Luncheon, at Olive Garden off Hwy 501.

The luncheon is for Sisterhood members only.

A reservation is required along with $10.00. Sisterhood will pick up the rest of the charges.

You must reserve your spot to attend by June 13, 2022!

Please see the flyer for more information, and print out the menu for the luncheon.

LADIES WHO LUNCH

A group of 40-year-old girlfriends discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally, it was agreed upon that they should meet at the Ocean View restaurant because the waiters there had tight pants and nice bums.

10 years later at 50 years of age, the group once again discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally, it was agreed that they should meet at the Ocean View restaurant because the food there was very good, the wine selection was good also, and the waiters were cute.
